

Don't judge a book by its cover:

But....what about its first line? How did the book hook you? Write down the title and author along with the intriguing opening lines on a 3x5 index card. (Don't forget your name!) Use one card per book. Submit them all to your language arts teacher by August 24. You will get a Raider buck for every card submitted!

Summer Reading Bingo:

Read to get Bingo (across, down, or diagonally). Write the name of the qualifying book in the appropriate square. You can use a book only once. Submit your Bingo winning card to your language arts teacher by August 24 and win a prize!

Sunshine State Books – Read these books to earn special rewards and get ready for next year!

A science fiction novel _____	A classic from the literature section (800 in nonfiction) _____	Non-fiction: history _____	A book with a male protagonist <sup>1</sup> _____	A book from a series _____
A book by a female author _____	A dystopian society <sup>2</sup> novel _____	A drama (needs to be written like a script) _____	Historical fiction _____	A graphic novel _____
An adventure novel _____	A Nancy Drew or Hardy Boys mystery (original series) _____	READER'S CHOICE _____	A book with a "sporty" element (fiction or nonfiction) _____	A book of mythology _____
A book with an animal or about animals _____	Non-fiction: science and technology _____	A book that has been made into a movie _____	A mystery novel _____	A book by a male author _____
A biography _____	A book with a female protagonist <sup>1</sup> _____	A Sunshine State Young Reader Award book _____	A fantasy novel _____	A how-to book _____