Everyday activities:

- Get Caught Reading
 - Teachers/Staff will give out tickets to students who they catch reading for fun! Students can turn in tickets to the media center for a prize.
- How Many Books?
 - Visit the media center to take a guess at how many books are in our collection! Closest guess wins a prize.
- Favorite Book Display
 - Visit the media center and check out our display on some of our staff's favorite books!
- Trivia
 - Listen during the morning announcements for a daily trivia question! First homeroom class to email Ms. Gowin the correct answer wins a prize.
- Makerspace Activities
 - Visit the media center to participate in literacy themed makerspace activities!
- Reading Bingo
 - Stop by the media center to grab a reading bingo sheet. Complete it and check off at least 4 in a row to receive a prize!
- Book Drive
 - Donate new or gently used elementary appropriate books to be given to South Woods Elementary school.

Wednesday, January 26th:

- Raiders Reading Event
 - During homeroom, all teachers and students will read from 7:25 – 7:35 either together as a class or individually.
